ALEXIA

Winona - once your favored land beneath the bluffs along this river grand.

I came and sought some trace of your spirit here,
anything that you might have held most dear.

I walked along the narrow creek among the trees
as the winds blew hot, rustling the leaves.

Then I saw it, the gigantic cottonwood caught my eye.
In diameter six-foot trunk and reaching to the sky.

Majestic, sturdy so tall above every other tree and branches so broad and wide as if all to oversee.

Surely you knew this tree, so ancient and so strong.
God's special praise alive here in nature's song.

I reached to touch the tree trunk to see if your spirit might somehow speak to me.

As the birds in the branches high ever singing
upon me came your peace and special blessing.
