Entrance Hymn Morning Has Broken Bunessan

1. Morning has broken like the first morning.
Jesus has spoken, He is the Word.
Praise for His living, praise for His dying,
Praise for His loving call we have heard.
2. Ours is the sunlight, ours is the morning.
Born of the one Light of the first day.
He is that bright Truth, He is that true Light.
For every Christian He is the Way.
3. Rising we praise you, loving and strong One,
Source of creation, Giver of rest.
Source of our living, end of our loving.
Finally call us home to our rest.

Closing Hymn

Let Us Sing With Gladness

HYMN TO JOY

1. Let us sing with gladdened hearts a joyful resurrection song. Praise our God who has sustained us and to Whom we all belong. Time gives way to light eternal, human striving now can cease. We are welcomed to God's presence, there to share in lasting peace.
2. May the God of love and goodness, end of every earthly strife, Be with us as we remember all who live eternal life. God of love and God of mercy, welcome to your loving sight, All who lived their lives among us, Gift them with your loving light!
3. Life eternal beckons all who live and hope for joys unknown. Joys of being with our loved ones, with our God in final home. Let us bless the holy memory of the lives that we have shared. Till we also one day join them, in God's blessed loving care.
